

2019 High School Summer Tennis

Who:

Players entering grades 9-12 in the fall, this year's seniors and BMS players who played on the BHS teams the previous year. Players who plan on playing BHS tennis are encouraged to take part in this summer program. We will have summer tennis ladders to encourage players to compete.

What:

A mixture of drills, fun games, individual instruction and match play.

When: Monday, June 3 - Thursday, July 11th

NO Tennis on July 4th

Regular Sessions

Monday & Wednesday 9-11 AM

Tuesday & Thursday 8-10 PM

Supervised "Open Hit" Times

Monday & Wednesday 6-9 PM

Tuesday & Thursday 6-8 PM

* These will be held during evening BMS sessions. Some courts will be kept available for BHS players.

Where: BHS courts

Why:

If the BHS tennis teams are going to be a force in Section 8AA it is critical to have a summer program that allows players to continue their development outside the regular season.

Cost:

One price, cool "Bemidji Tennis" t-shirt included! Players interested in helping with the Youth Tennis Program on Tuesdays and Thursdays should contact Kyle Fodness at bemidjitennis@gmail.com. Partial and full fee waivers are available for youth program volunteer coaches. High School program participants also receive a discounted registration fee for the 2019 Lumberjack Open.

Coaches:

Head coach Mark Fodness will oversee the program and coach on a part-time basis while also working with the BMS program. Kyle Fodness, John Konecne, and other Bemidji Tennis coaches will assist.

Are you interested in taking private lessons from a coach that will help prepare you to succeed in the Bemidji High School tennis program? All of our coaches support the Lumberjacks and will provide instructions that will help players develop skills that fit well with the expectations of the BHS coaching staff.
